LOCAL AND GENERAL

His father's deputy, a western drama at the Princess tonight.

Fred Goyert, county clerk, was in the city yesterday on business.

John Huebner of South Cape spent last Sunday in Illinois visiting friends.

Thos. Blue of South Cape entertained friends from St. Louis, last Sunday.

Bohnack's removal sale continues to draw large crowds. Bargains are plentiful.

The colored people will hold a picnic and barbecue at the new Fair Grounds, Aug. 4th.

Nick LaCroix, manager of the Royal Theatre, has returned from a three weeks trip to Hot Springs.

Ralph Baker left yesterday for Vienna, Ill., to visit relatives whom he has not seen for many years.

Harry J. Wagner returned yesterday from his trip to Wyoming, Illinois, and other northern points.

J. Frank Carter has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., where he will spend several weeks taking nature baths.

The fall stock for the Men's Store will arrive next week, and Garrett Glenn promises the boys something new.

A rag time romance, a burlesque comedy which is sure to please is on the screen at the Princess tonight.

A way to the underworld, is the title of the ninth series of "What Happened to Mary," to be seen at the Princess Theatre tonight.

Jess Byers took a party of friends up the river on a fishing trip in his gasoline boat yesterday. They expect to be gone several days.

Arthur Carter, a switchman for the Frisco railway was severely injured last Sunday, by being hit with a switch stand while riding on a train.

E. A. Raines has returned from his trip to Tamora, Ill., where he had been visiting his wife and son, who are spending their vacation there.

Smith Myers of East St. Louis, Ill., former circuit clerk of St. Clair County was in town Wednesday on business. Mr. Myers has many friends here.

H. J. Hines of the Frisco railway will leave soon for a thirty day visit in Virginia, where his parents reside. His wife will make the trip with him.

Thos. Hunt and his wife of Jackson will make a trip to Springfield, Mo., in their auto the first of next week, and expect to be gone two weeks.

Mrs. Henry Gockel and three daughters stopped off in the Cape on their return from St. Louis where they had been spending a week, before returning home in Jackson.

About a dozen families who have been living in little homes south of the Frisco shops, on railroad property, have received written notice to vacate within the next ten days.

The Cape Girardeau Cement works which had closed down for two weeks to make repairs, will not start as expected, owing to a strike of the firemen, who demand shorter hours and more wages.

At the last meeting of the council an ordinance was unanimously adopted placing a fine of $25 on minors who enter saloons. Young men who are not of age will be careful in the future, and not take the chances they did in the past to get their drinks, and at the same time it will offer a just protection to the saloonkeepers, who never have been anxious to sell to minors. The law is, no doubt a good one, and will give general satisfaction.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

State of Missouri,
County of Cape Girardeau ss.
Jennie Miller, Pltf.,
vs.
Oma Miller, Loester Miller,
Laura Miller and Burette
King, Defendants.

To all whom it may concern.

Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein, by her Attorney, Robert L. Wilson, and files her petition and affidavit, alleging, among other things, that defendants, Oma Miller, Loester Miller, Laura Miller and Burette King, are not residents of the State of Missouri, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon them within this State.

Whereupon, it is ordered by the clerk in vacation, that said defendants be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against them in this court, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of partition of the following described real estate, to-wit:

All of that fractional part of lot number thirty (30) in range "F" in the City of Cape Girardeau bounded as follows, to-wit, commencing twenty-eight (28) feet north from the southwest corner of said lot number thirty (30) in range "F" on Sprigg street, thence north with Sprigg street twenty-eight (28) feet, thence east parallel with North street one hundred and eighty (180) feet to an alley, thence south with said alley twenty-eight (28) feet, thence west parallel with North street one hundred eighty (180) feet to the place of beginning. All of said above described real estate is situated in the County of Cape Girardeau in the State of Missouri.

That the estate and interest claimed therein by said petitioner is a homestead in all of said land; also a one fifth of a one sixth interest which she inherited from her now deceased daughter, Freddie Miller; also a one fifth of a one sixth interest which she inherited from her now deceased daughter, Carry Miller, said interest being subject to the homestead of petitioner here in.

That upon said above described property there is located a dwelling house; and that unless the said Oma Miller, Loester Miller, Laura Miller and Burette King be and appear at this court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the Court House in the city of Jackson, in said county, on the 25th day of August next, and on or before the first day of said term, unless further time be granted by the court—answer or demur to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof be published, according to law, in the Cape County Herald, a newspaper published in said County of Cape Girardeau for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next August term of this court.

H. L. HOFFMEISTER,
Circuit Clerk.
BEN E. MASTERS,
Deputy.

A true copy from the record.
Witness my hand, and the seal of the Circuit Court of Cape Girardeau County, this 1st day of July, 1913.

H. L. HOFFMEISTER,
(Seal) Circuit Clerk.
BEN E. MASTERS,
Deputy Clerk.

With Mexico getting ugly and the "insidious" lobby making a great fuss President Wilson is having hard luck during the "vacation" of his chief Advisor, Mr. Bryan, who says he is compelled to travel and lecture in order to meet the high cost of living at Washington.

More Feature Pictures.

Beginning with last Tuesday the management of the Princess Theatre have set aside Tuesday and Thursday of each week for extra special feature pictures, which no doubt will prove popular among the patrons of this play house.

Next Tuesday night we will see a Kaleem feature in two reels, under the title of "The Battle of Freedom." This is a realistic Boer War picture, full of thrilling scenes and adventure.

Tonight, the ninth picture of "What Happened to Mary," will be shown. As this series draws to a close the pictures become more and more interesting.

Telegraph Brevities.

Mrs. Nancy Green, 53, met J. McGlasson, 71, at her husband's funeral in St. Louis a few months ago, and married him yesterday at Grafton, Ill.

Katie Moonshine obtained a license to marry Blackhawk, a full blooded Indian, at St. Louis.

Francis M. Wilson, a Missouri State Senator, was appointed United States Attorney in Western Missouri, by President Woodrow Wilson.

Sixty-five persons, mostly women and girls, lost their lives in a fire of the Birmingham Clothing Company at Birmingham, N. Y.

President Wilson stand on the tariff was approved in an election held in New Jersey, when A. C. Hart was elected to Congress by over 2000 plurality.

Buffalo Bill's show was attached at Denver, Colo., to satisfy a claim of $66,000 of the United States Lithographing Co., and the 114 Indians used in the show have been sent back to the Sioux Reservation.

Edward Horner, a stack painter, fell 128 feet at Granite City, Ill., when the rope holding his rigging broke. While he suffered many injuries, he still lives.

Because the miners were contemplating a strike, the owners of the copper mines in Michigan have closed down, throwing 15,000 men out of work.

From the tone of the Democratic newspapers one would conclude that Senator Stone will be resolutely opposed as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Senator next year. He will have to rely upon vote of the cities for nomination and for election if nominated. He is popular with the Democratic politicians of the cities, but has lost his hold on the honest Democratic voters of the counties.
